Art Matters

The state level programme organized by the ABVP, Exhibition of paintings and poster designing of Karnataka state fine art colleges, with this concept we can create very fruitful awareness in the society among young generation, which I personally feels as a judge of the event this is very successful event and should be continue once in the year at least and with this we can create the great cultural and social platform for the present and upcoming generation.

Art matters were the first event which I attended and it was a very nice experience. Art matter was not only a completion but it was more like a exploration of event and interaction with many other creative people. Event like this encourages young artists like us and gives good platform to showcase our art, so I hope for more art events like this from art matters.
